

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is with tremendous respect that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse daily endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone achievements on the part of Show-Me State residents who have devoted considerable time and energy to assisting the workers of organized labor; and

Whereas, John H. Clark of Saint Louis, Missouri, has attained distinction through his selection as a 2003 Andy Owens Community Service Award recipient, an honor of which he is most deserving; and

Whereas, currently working with the Labor's Community Services Partnership associated with United Way of Greater Saint Louis, John Clark was initiated into IBEW #1 on October 31, 1957, to begin a life of union activities that continues today; and

Whereas, elected Treasurer of Local One's newly developed and growing Political Action Committee, John Clark was subsequently elected as a Union Election Teller and Delegate to the Los Angeles IBEW International Convention, was asked to work full-time during the 1978 struggle against Right to Work, was hired in 1979 by the Human Resources Development Institute employment and training arm of the AFL-CIO, and was elected President of the Staff Union; and

Whereas, when colleague Andy Owens retired from the United Way, John Clark was selected to carry on the tradition of Community Services at the umbrella, not-for-profit organization; and

Whereas, John Clark has served as an elected member and President of the Saint Louis Community College Board of Trustees, an appointed member and Chairman of the Saint Louis Civil Service Commission, and a member of Confluence Saint Louis, Conference on Education, Saint Louis Private Industry Council, Metropolitan Re-Employment Project, Youth Employment Coalition, Shaw Community School Advisory Board, and Franz Park Community Association:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of John Clark for the Andy Owens Community Service Award and to convey to him this legislative body's sincerest best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to John H. Clark of Saint Louis, Missouri.
